ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society was held on November 15, 1944, at 3 P. M., in the Auditorium of the Insurance Company of North America Building, with the president, C. Frederick C. Stout, in the Chair.

Announcement was made of the elections to the Executive Council for the three-year term (1945 - 1947, inclusive) as follows: Mr. W. Atlee Burpee, Jr., Mrs. John B. Carson, Mr. Harold Graham, Mrs. J. Norman Henry, Mr. William L. McLean, Jr., Mrs. Alan Reed, Mrs. Walter King Sharpe, Mrs. Irving Warner, Mr. John C. Wister.

Benjamin Rush, Jr., Treasurer, made the financial report for the year and stated that the budget had been balanced.

The President made a brief address, in which he announced an important gift to the Library — the collection of gardening books of the late Mrs. Horatio Gates Lloyd, who was Chairman of the Library Committee for many years. The books are the gift of Mr. Richard W. Lloyd and Mr. H. Gates Lloyd, sons of Mrs. Lloyd.

The special feature of the afternoon was a lecture on "Penn's Woods — Then and Now," by Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., Vice-Provost of the University of Pennsylvania and member of the Executive Council.

The Secretary reviewed the activities of the Society for the past year and his report concluded the meeting.

There were 143 members present.

JOHN C. WISTER,

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT FOR 1944

It is a great pleasure for me this afternoon to welcome such a representative gathering of the members of The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society to this our 116th Annual Meeting. It is encouraging to me, especially in the light of the great difficulties we are all up against due to the inconvenience of transportation.

Regarding the finances of the Society, I wish to congratulate and thank the Chairmen of all the Committees of the Council for the splendid administrative work by those committees, in which they obtained such excellent results with such careful expenditure. The Finance Committee, in going over the financial report of our Accountants for the past year and the estimated income for the coming year, was faced with the fact that from the Schaffer Trust Fund, which is handled by the Girard Trust Company, there will be about $1,500. less income that can be counted on this coming year than we received for the year just closed. For the past three years the members have very kindly made contributions, in excess of dues, and these contributions have averaged about $1,000. a year. This year I have undertaken to write to a small group of our members who are either on the Council or Life Members in an effort to make up this deficiency of income, in order that the splendid work that has been done by our Committees shall not be handicapped.*

I wish to make formal announcement at this meeting that Mr. Horatio Gates Lloyd, Jr., and Mr. Richard W. Lloyd, sons of the late Mrs. Horatio Gates Lloyd, have offered to the Society their mother's horticultural library. During her lifetime Mrs. Lloyd served on the Council of our Society and acted as Chairman of the Library Committee. Mrs. Lloyd was an outstanding horticulturist and had collected a most excellent horticultural library of her own. This gift will make a valuable addition to our present library and has been accepted as a gracious act on the part of her sons in memory of their mother.

In this connection I announce a gift by Mrs. Alan H. Reed, one of our Council members, of the special bookcases needed for this collection. This gift was given in memory of her son, Lieutenant Alan Reed, U.S.N., a Life Member of the Society, who was recently killed in action in the Pacific. On behalf of the Society, I offer Mrs. Reed our deepest sympathy.

I feel we should all take pride in the condition of the Society, especially in face of the changing economic conditions that have been brought about by the war. A planned economy, with all of its regimentation, has been forced upon us for the duration of the Second World War, and the end is not yet. Our important duty has been to keep alive human interest in the work of our Creator as we find it in plant life, which is the very sustenance of our existence. Horticulture, in truth, is refined from agriculture to fit the home and becomes the basis of its economy, from which our community and national economy and life are but mammoth developments.

It is the concentration of thought upon the object of the mind that makes for accomplishment and the action thereof becomes a spiritual thing. The great skyscrapers of our cities are but creations of the minds of the architects and engineers which conceived them. Every bridgehead in this war has been attained by such thought and leadership of mind. The mental efforts of the members of this Society have been and must continue to be directed to the vitalizing of interest in horticulture that we may have at least a bridgehead to expand upon when this great conflict draws to an end and peace again is with us.

I wish to compliment the office force for the great contribution which each of them has made in keeping alive all those things of an instructional and helpful nature that have been instituted in the past by the Society. I feel our Secretary, Mr. Wister, and our Field Secretary, Miss Wertsner, have done outstanding work in making a name for themselves and for the Society, not only throughout Pennsylvania but also in neighboring states. By continued cooperation of this kind of effort, let the good work go on.

*Note—I am happy to report that my request for $1,500. to $2,000. has since the Annual Meeting gone over the top.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY FOR 1944

One would naturally consider our Society to be about as far removed from the War effort as any organization could well be. Therefore, I was surprised when I reviewed our record for the year to notice how greatly our activities have been influenced by War conditions.

The emphasis which the War has directed to Victory Gardens was demonstrated first in three courses of talks on Vegetables by Mr. Andrew. A course for beginners in the morning, and later a more advanced course in the afternoon, repeated again the same evenings, gave everyone interested a chance to profit by the information. Three canning lectures and demonstrations by authorities from The Pennsylvania State College rounded out the Victory Garden program.

In the Field Secretary's department, also, the War effort made itself felt. Many of Miss Wertsner's lectures had to do with utilitarian gardens for present-day needs. In addition, she gave free talks and demonstrations to nurses and Red Cross groups on the proper arrangement of flowers for the hospitals. As a patriotic contribution, your Society made Miss Wertsner's lectures available to garden clubs in other parts of the State at a very low fee. In these days of difficult transportation, by going to the clubs Miss Wertsner made it possible for one person to do the traveling instead of making it necessary for garden club members to travel long distances for horticultural lectures. Miss Wertsner stressed war-time gardening in the eastern part of the State in March, and in Western Pennsylvania in May. In May we were called upon to decorate a Victory Garden window for the Office of Civilian Defense on Chestnut Street. Flats of growing vegetables were used effectively, and collections of spring flowers and arrangements of vegetables completed the display. The flowers and vegetables were renewed frequently through the generous co-operation of members.

The Garden Visits on four Saturday afternoons in May were just as enjoyable as in former years. Owners were reluctant to open their places on account of deficiencies in upkeep, but we convinced them that it was really their duty to do their bit in keeping up the morale of their fellow-gardeners. The transportation problem was a serious consideration—accessibility by public conveyance was the important factor in selecting the gardens. The highest attendance of the series was at a group of gardens in Mt. Airy, at one of which 278 visitors were recorded.

Your Society was asked to co-operate in supplying flowers and foliage to decorate the quarters of the United Service Club, 17th and Locust Streets. The liberal response of members enabled us to do this during the summer. There has been a slump since garden flowers are no longer obtainable, but we have had a few cash donations for decorations during the winter and we hope to have more so that the cheering inspiration of flowers and plants may be available to the service men after the holidays.

We were sorry that the big March Show had to be omitted again. I am confident that we shall enjoy the Spring Show all the more when it is resumed in the future.

The Harvest Show in September featured the results of our Victory Gardens. It was the first exhibition ever held in our own quarters, and we were pleased to find how well the rooms lent themselves to this use. The Show was a great success, both in the quality of exhibits and in the attendance of over 1,000.

The magazine "Horticulture" continued to be a valuable guide to us and kept us in touch with the latest developments in the gardening world. The Library also was a source of interesting information to many members, although its quota of visitors has diminished somewhat during the war period. There were 795 Library visitors during the past year. Miss Wertsner, in her capacity of horticulturist, was called upon for gardening advice constantly, both by callers at the office and by mail.

During the year, we have had 1,546 visitors to the rooms, exclusive of the Harvest Show. In addition to the many meetings of various kinds held by the Society, 56 meetings were held in our rooms by the boards and committees of other organizations with allied interests.

A summary of the membership record for the year is as follows:

Membership as of December 15, 1943.....	3548
Resignations (256) and deaths (44) during year..	300
	<hr/>
	3248
New members added during year .....	200

Secretary.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER FOR 1944

Total Assets of the Society as of September 30, 1944..$414,843.13
This is a decrease of $5,534.84 during the year and occurred as follows:

	1942-3	1943-4	Increase	Decrease
Cash .....	$ 7,617.25	$ 9,793.83	$ 2,176.58
Life Membership Inv... Elizabeth Schaffer	34,257.38	36,063.18	1,805.80
Trust Fund .....	341,947.58	332,609.51		$9,338.07
Changes in Inventories .....				179.15
Net Change during year .....				$5,534.84

During a ten year period, however, in spite of the capital losses in the Elizabeth Schaffer Trust Fund, the Society's assets have declined only $3,577.06, due to increases in Life Membership fees and other funds controlled directly by the Finance Committee of the Society.

In connection with the decrease in total assets, it is interesting to note the decline in income which has occurred in the Schaffer Fund at the Girard Trust Company. For instance, the income from this Fund in 1933 was $16,343.97, whereas in 1944 this had dropped to $11,183.33. This has been due in large measure to the decline in interest rates currently paid for the use of money.

Income of the Society was fairly well maintained during the year, totaling $23,027.62 as compared with $23,679.64 for the previous fiscal year, making a decrease of $652.02. Anticipated income for 1945 is $19,542.40, which is a decrease of $1,493.94 from that anticipated for 1944.

That the Society has been able to balance its budget during the past year and expects to do so in 1945 is due largely to the splendid co-operation of the chairmen of our various committees. They have pinched and saved here and there with little complaint. At the same time, they have continued the work of their committees but little impaired. To do this throughout these difficult times has brought great credit to the Society as well as reflecting equal credit upon themselves.

I cannot close this report without commenting upon the loyal and devoted service of the Society's staff. They have been most industrious and faithful in all things and are deserving of our sincere admiration.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN RUSH, JR.,

Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE FOR 1944

Another year has passed, a year of the most terrific struggle the world has ever known! Right now there is no sign of any sort of let-up. It is bound to come, however, and we hope and pray it may come soon. Life must go on and in addition to helping the tremendous war effort, we in The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society are trying to preserve horticulture with all its uses and ideals for our young ones when they return to our midst.

It is firmly believed there will be a big swing towards gardening in all its forms. Fruit and vegetable growing having become a practical necessity. Flower growing, with its scientific sides of breeding and collecting is a field wide enough to hold the interest of millions. The books in our Library are the stepping stones to all these fields. Let us use them freely.

We are fortunate in that a great gift has been recently given to us. In times like these it is rare that we have an opportunity to rejoice. Truly we do rejoice now because of this gift. For ten years, Mrs. Horatio Gates Lloyd was Chairman of the Library Committee of our Society. Greatly interested in horticulture, especially in an intellectual and studiously literary way, she gradually amassed in her own home library a collection of most rare horticultural books. Every one is a gem. All are in splendid condition in spite of the fact that many are of rare antiquity. The colored floral plates in many of the books are unbelievably beautiful and the text is of immense value to research students and other interested persons. We are indebted to Mr. H. Gates Lloyd, Jr., and Mr. Richard W. Lloyd, Mrs. Lloyd's two sons, for this splendid gift.

The Library records show that 183 books were added this year; there were 784 visitors to the Library; and 148 books were circulated among the members.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to the following donors of books: Mr. Otto Degener, Miss Sylvia Detweiler, Miss Anna Ingersoll, Mr. Charles F. Jenkins, Mr. Walter S. Lapp, Dr. J. Horace McFarland, Mrs. E. Florens Rivinus, Miss Lydia S. M. Robinson, Mrs. H. Wickcliffe Rose, Miss Anne B. Wertsner, Miss Helen VanPelt Wilson, Mr. John C. Wister, the Massachusetts Horticultural Society and the Moorestown Public Library.

Respectfully submitted.

MARY G. HENRY, Chairman.

(Mrs. J. Norman Henry).

REPORT OF LECTURE COMMITTEE FOR 1944

Lectures again in 1944 assumed a prominent place in the activities of the Society, due both to the increased demand for information about Victory Gardens, which could best be given through informal talks, and to the necessary curtailment of Flower Shows which led us to give more than usual importance to this other phase of the Society's work.

Three lectures were presented in the regular series of Tuesday afternoon lectures early in the year, as follows:

January 11—"The Garden—Season by Season," Arthur S. Berger.
February 15—"Spring in the South," Dr. John B. May.
March 14—"Wings of Spring," Cleveland P. Grant.

Mr. Berger's lecture dealt with gardens from the point of view of a landscape architect. It was illustrated with natural color pictures of beautiful places in different sections of this country.

"Spring in the South," by Dr. May, was an interesting account of famous Southern gardens. They were familiar scenes to many in the audience, and the lovely motion pictures in color called up pleasant memories to those who had visited the places and a keen desire in those who had not, to do so as soon as possible after the war.

Mr. Cleveland Grant's "Wings of Spring" was a fitting conclusion to the winter lectures. His inimitable bird films were enjoyed by the largest audience of the series.

The attendance at the three lectures varied between 175 and 360.

To assist Victory Gardeners in 1944, as in 1943 and 1942, courses of lectures on Vegetables were given by John A. Andrew, Jr., School of Horticulture, Ambler. Dividing the series into elementary and advanced courses, and presenting them in the morning, afternoon and evening, were great helps in pleasing everyone who was interested in the subject.

The elementary course for beginners was given on three Monday mornings in February, and the advanced course for more experienced gardeners was given on three Monday afternoons and evenings in March. The average attendance was 57.

Three lectures on home canning of fruit and vegetables followed Mr. Andrew's courses, in order to assist the Victory Gardeners in preserving their surplus. One of these lectures was given on "Victory Garden Day," March 30, and the other two took place on May 23. The three lectures were presented by Miss Lydia Tarrant, Nutritionist, Home Economics Department of The Pennsylvania State College, and were arranged by Miss Lila Lee Riddell, of the Extension Service of the College. They were held in the auditorium and kitchen of the Philadelphia Inter-State Dairy Council. We are greatly indebted to the Dairy Council and to State College for their very kind co-operation.

In the autumn, the first lecture was that of Dr. John M. Fogg, Jr., who spoke at the Annual Meeting on November 15. His subject,

"Penn's Woods—Then and Now," was very timely as October 24, 1944, marked the Tercentenary of William Penn's birth.

On December 6, two lectures on Christmas Decorations were given. The first, illustrated with Kodachrome slides, was presented by Miss Wertsner, Field Secretary, in the morning, and the second, "Global Christmases," was demonstrated by Mrs. William G. Wheeler in the afternoon.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. FOGG,
Chairman.

GARDEN VISITS, 1944

An interesting series of Garden Visits was presented on four successive Saturdays in May. All of the gardens could be reached by public conveyance, and the visits were well attended in spite of the gasoline problem.

The groups of gardens in lower Germantown on the first afternoon and the group in Mount Airy on the second Saturday were visited just at the right time and were exceedingly lovely. They were also particularly popular, due both to the fact that the weather was perfect on those days and also because the first visits in the series always attract the largest number of visitors. There was considerable variation in the gardens in these two groups—ranging from the perfect small garden of Mrs. George Plumley; through the medium sized gardens, which were in the majority and which were of both formal and informal design, to the large and famous Hemlock Arboretum of Mr. Charles F. Jenkins, with its wooded slopes rising from the Wissahickon.

The Arboretum of the Barnes Foundation occupied the third Saturday afternoon. Unfortunately, rain in the early afternoon prevented many members from seeing this beautiful place, which has unusually fine collections of plants and shrubs and magnificent specimens of trees. The grounds are kept in excellent condition, even in these days.

The Lansdowne gardens concluded the series, and it was rather surprising to find roses in full bloom, on May 27, in the garden of Mrs. S. S. Pennock. The masses of azaleas, which make Mrs. Gilbert Mustin's garden such a stunning spectacle each spring, had just passed their prime, much to our regret. The series of little gardens of Mrs. Frederick W. Kelly proved as interesting as ever. Mrs. Charles S. Musser kindly permitted us to add her unique small garden to the list at the last minute.

The attendance at the visits varied between 270, the highest number recorded, and 86, the lowest.

The program of visits was as follows:

Saturday, May 6—Germantown

Mr. and Mrs. George Plumly, 2812 Midvale Avenue.
Miss Elizabeth S. Newhall and Mr. C. Stevenson Newhall, "Carlton," Northeast corner Midvale Avenue and Stokley Street.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sowden, 3823 The Oak Road.
Mr. John Hohenadel, 3850 The Oak Road.
The Misses Mason, "Cerne," School House Lane, Southeast of Wissahickon Avenue.

Saturday, May 13—Mount Airy

Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Leeds, 1025 Westview Street.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Jenkins, "Far Country," Kitchens Lane.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Morris, "End House," Scotforth Road.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Reed Cary, Ellet Lane and Wissahickon Avenue.
M. and Mrs. Henry S. Bromley, 7000 Wissahickon Avenue.

Saturday, May 20—Merion

The Arboretum of the Barnes Foundation, Latch's Lane.

Saturday, May 27—Lansdowne

Mrs. Samuel S. Pennock, "Pennock House," 135 Lansdowne Court.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Kelly, "Little Gardens," 40 Lincoln Avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. John Castle Wright, 44 Lincoln Avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert B. Mustin, Herford Place.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Musser, 25 Dudley Avenue.

Other places of horticultural interest were recommended to members for spring visits, as follows:

Arthur Hoyt Scott Horticultural Foundation, Swarthmore College Campus, Swarthmore.
The Glendinning Rock Garden, Fairmount Park, East River Drive.
Friends Hospital, Roosevelt Boulevard, Frankford.
Valley Forge Park, Valley Forge.
Longwood Gardens, estate of Pierre S. duPont, Kennett Square.

The Society wishes to extend its grateful thanks to the owners of gardens and to the institutions listed above for giving us the enjoyable privilege of Garden Visits in 1944.

REPORT OF EXHIBITION COMMITTEE FOR 1944

Because only one exhibition was planned for 1944, your Exhibition Committee decided to make it as outstanding as possible. Therefore, special effort was put into the Harvest Show held on September 25 and 26. The resulting exhibition more than came up to our expectations, and those who worked hard to make it a success felt fully repaid for their labor.

The Harvest Show was the first major exhibition ever held in our rooms and was in the nature of an experiment. Fortunately, the gray-green walls and walnut woodwork and furniture provided an ideal setting, and the series of rooms gave a pleasing informality to the exhibits.

There were 500 entries in the 48 classes, which included vegetables, fruits, flowers, canned fruits and vegetables and flower arrangements. Among the special exhibits not in competition, Michell's Seed House won an honorable mention with a mouth-watering display of vegetables. The W. Atlee Burpee Company showed their new introduction "Flash" marigold. The Philadelphia Branch of the National Association of Gardeners was awarded a silver medal for an artistic display of fruits and vegetables, which even included some extremely large chestnut burs with perfect nuts. In several exhibits, the unusual varieties of tomatoes, such as the ponderosa types, the Italia Pasta, the small yellow pear and plum varieties and the red and yellow peach tomatoes attracted interest. A white egg plant was another curiosity.

The Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania and the Arthur Hoyt Scott Foundation of Swarthmore College staged a joint exhibit of berried shrubs which made a stunning display.

The vivid colors of marigolds, zinnias, dahlias, cockscombs and gladioli held their own with the bright yellows, reds, oranges and greens of the vegetables, and added beauty as well as a lighter touch to the show.

A few beautiful collections of roses were shown by some of the garden clubs. The prize-winner, by the Garden Club of Philadelphia, was outstanding.

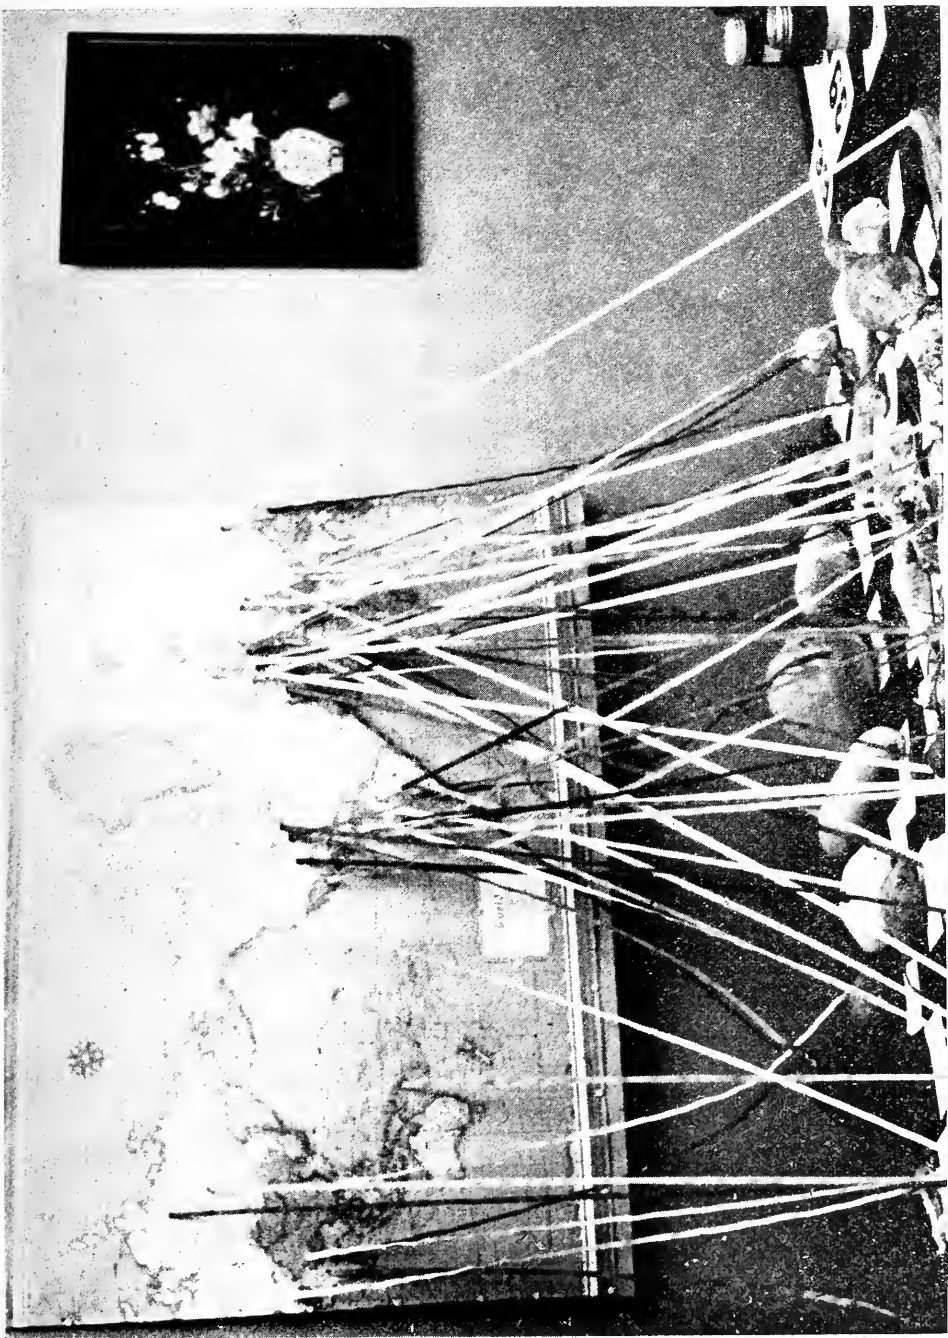

We have had requests for more flower shows in the last few years but have found it practically impossible to arrange them—first because we could not find a suitable location for small shows and next because the problems of labor and transportation of material were very great. Now that we have found our rooms so adaptable, we hope, in 1945, to stage some small seasonal exhibits in our own quarters which we think will be interesting and worth-while.

The Philadelphia Flower Show again must be omitted in March, 1945, and we share the disappointment of the members in this fact, although we realize that under present conditions it would be impossible to go ahead with it.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD GRAHAM,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EXTENSION COMMITTEE FOR 1944

It seems a proper time to present a report of the forward-looking work done for the Society by its Field Secretary, Miss Wertsner. I am therefore transmitting herewith her letter of November 27 as such a report.

"This year the officers of the Society realized that many of its members could not attend all the lectures they should have liked to because of transportation problems. It is hard for our many members living throughout the state to avail themselves of all the privileges of membership in the Society, and certainly the nearby residents of Philadelphia do have more opportunities than those living elsewhere. With this in mind, it was decided to offer to garden and other clubs, outside a fifty mile radius of Philadelphia, lectures on gardening subjects at a very nominal fee. Two tours were planned, one for March and one for May, and despite the short notice given beforehand, thirty-four clubs were able to avail themselves of this offer. Four subjects were submitted for choice. One was demonstrated, the other three were illustrated with Kodachrome slides. "High Lights of a Gardener's Year" and "The 1944 Garden" proved most popular. The Field Secretary hopes that these lectures stimulated interest in better gardening in all parts of the state.

"Other lectures have been given as usual and they took me to Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Virginia and West Virginia as well as in Pennsylvania. During the winter months I was in charge of The Junto Gardening Class in Philadelphia. I participated in two Judging Schools in Virginia and West Virginia and have lectured on "Flower Arrangement" for the Gray Ladies Course which is sponsored by the Red Cross.

"The Harvest Show, which was staged in the rooms of the Society in September, proved most satisfactory. The rooms offered a pleasing home-like setting and seemed quite spacious for the many entries that were made.

"'Christmas Decorations' is a subject that has always been popular but seems to be more so now that the Garden Clubs have undertaken to decorate hospitals, service centers, etc. for our boys in the service. Fourteen lectures were given on this subject and, if the service men in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania enjoy their decorations more because of them, I shall feel most gratified for any small effort that I put forth.

"Various meetings were attended by the Field Secretary. As Regional Chairman of Judging School Accrediting of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., I attended two most inspiring regional meetings held under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lewis M. Hull. (I wish you could all know Mrs. Hull and I wish all meetings were as interesting as hers. She really gets places and does things and we are fortunate to have her in our region.) The semi-annual meeting of the National Council, held in New York in October, was also attended. Another outstanding meeting was the "Rose Day" held at the New York Botanical Garden, June 13. It would be hard for one to describe the thousands of roses which were at their height that day. Various organizations and garden clubs have invited me, as a guest, to attend meetings of special interest or when they were having speakers in whom they knew I would be interested. I have accepted when possible, and wish to express my appreciation for these courtesies.

"My visits not only took me to interesting private gardens, but to places of great horticultural interest such as Dr. McFarland's Breeze Hill Gardens in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania State College, State College, Phipps Conservatory, Pittsburgh, Highland and Durand-Eastman Parks, Rochester, N. Y., etc., and the Poconos, a haven for the botanist and naturalist.

"Film was obtained from time to time. This meant that we were able to add many new Kodachromes to our collection.

"During the summer the Society appealed to its members for cut flowers to decorate the United Service Center, 17th & Locust Streets, Philadelphia. The members responded generously and many trips were made by all members of the staff to the Center. Often as many as fifteen or more arrangements were made. The boys seemed to appreciate most of all the flowers that were placed on the dining room tables, and the many grateful remarks overheard or made directly would warm the hearts of those who so graciously contributed flowers, containers or money for this purpose.

Horticultural inquiries have been many and the following statistics speak for themselves:

Lectures		Horticultural Inquiries

"I hope that this meets with your approval.

Yours sincerely,

ANNE B. WERTSNER,
Field Secretary."

In conclusion, may I call attention to the fact that the way in which The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society has reached out to neighboring and friendly states which need the kind of advance work Miss Wertsner is doing ought to be taken to heart as a justification of what we do, because I must constantly realize that after all the work being done is a part of the general effort instituted by Benjamin Franklin during his residence in Philadelphia, which work was fraught with so much good to mankind, and particularly to America.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HORACE McFARLAND.
